Developing e-Learning in the Transcaucasus Region

The ARMAZEG partners strongly believe e-learning to be an important tool to: realize a flexible organisation of higher and adult education; to improve learning by supporting student-centred methodologies; to support research based higher education and to enable the internationalisation of higher education.

OBJECTIVES

ARMAZEG wants to stimulate educational reform in Armenian and Georgian universities in order to answer the challenges posed by globalization. The main goal is to further implement e-learning with special attention to developing lifelong learning methodologies.

ACTIVITIES

The project will be realized in consecutive steps:

- 1. An assessment of the current situation;
- 2. Development of a vision and implementation strategy;
- 3. The establishment of e-learning centres in the participating Armenian and Georgian institutions;
- 4. Professionalisation of teaching staff in the field of e-learning;
- 5. Set-up of concrete pilot projects.
